PROTEST STORM GREETING HEARING ON TAX REFORM

House Ways and Means Committee Opens Hearing on Revisions.
FIGHT STAMP TAXES
Repeal of 'Nuisance Taxes'
Assured by Many Members of Body

Washington, July 26.—The house ways and means committee opened hearings on tax revisions today amidst a storm of protest.

From the number of witnesses who asked that they might be given a hearing it appeared that there will be a vigorous protest offered against every tax now in existence and every tax which is suggested.

Particular opposition was voiced today against the small war taxes; especially the stamp taxes. Representatives of the bottling and confectionery interests were heard in appeals for removal of taxes on fruit juices and mild beverages and on ice cream and soda waters. These taxes have been alluded to as the "nuisance taxes." Their repeal is assured by many committee members.

Discussion of the sale tax was opened up before the committee by Rep. Fear, Wisconsin, who is opposed to this tax, and had brought opponents of the proposition forward to argue against it. Announcement was made that the sales tax was not under consideration by the committee at the present time.

Southern tobacco growers and manufacturers were represented and a protest was made before the committee against increases in the taxes on cigars, cigarettes and other forms of tobacco manufactures.

The committee has taken as a frame work for its legislation two pending bills. One the Longworth bill introduced some time ago
providing for repeal of the excess profits tax, reduction of the sur-taxes, on large incomes and increase of the tax on corporation incomes. The other, the Green bill which provides for simplification of administrative features of the income tax law and gives the treasury department authority to make the final settlements and adjustments of taxes in dispute and litigation. The latter is considered of first importance as it will result in large payments immediately to the treasury. The Green bill passed the house last session but was held up in the senate.

SEARCH FOR BANK PRESIDENT STARTS IN NEW DIRECTION

Believe Wife and Daughter
Used to Throw Pursuit
Off Trail.

Chicago, July 26.—Belief that the wife and daughter of Warren C. Spur-gin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust Company, fled from Chicago to Detroit to cover the banker's escape by another route led to the virtual abandonment today of the search along the Canadian border.
Detectives are centering their efforts on Colorado and along the Mexican border.

Messages were sent to all points of entry into Mexico today asking that the border be guarded. A theory is advanced that Spurgin is heading toward the southwest with the intention of making his way to Honduras.

Detectives made it clear today that neither Mrs. Spurgin nor her daughter Vivian are involved in Spurgin's speculations which are placed as high as $1,500,000. It is believed however, that they were used by him as tools
to facilitate his escape.

Spurgin is said to have sent a package to a point in Colorado the day before his disappearance. Detectives believe this package contained funds to aid him in his flight and that he intends to go to Colorado to obtain it.

No positive action has yet been taken by the grand jury toward indictment of Spurgin and depositors of the bank have not decided upon their course of procedure.

BRITISH OIL CONCERN TO EXPLOIT PERSIA

London, July 26.—The Anglo-Persian oil company, a British concern,
which previously controlled the oil fields in Southern Persia, has been granted a concession to exploit the entire northern half of Persia, according to John Lawrence Caldwell, American minister to Persia, who is here today
enroute from Teheran to New York.
Caldwell said that in the future the British will control all the rich oil sources throughout Persia. American interests in Persia, he added, amount practically to nothing beyond a little carnet buying. Caldwell and his family will sail for New York on the Nieuw Amsterdam on Thursday.

CHANGE NAME OF WILSON AVE.

Turin, July 26.—The municipality has changed the name
of Wilson Avenue to Pluma Avenue. It was named Wilson Avenue in honor of the former American president during his visit to Rome while the peace conference was on.

RAILROAD DEBT PLAN IMPERILS PRESENT PEACE

Party Lines May Be Split
Wide Open Over Way
Of Funding.

PROJECT SUBMITTED

Administration Suggests
Placing $500,000,000 To Rails' Credit.

Washington, July 26.—President Harding this afternoon appealed to congress to extend the powers of the war finance corporation to relieve the
"after war distresses of two great fundamental activities"—the railroads
and agriculture.

The president in a message to congress asked that the war finance corporation be given power to purchase
railroad securities, which are the result of the funding of the railroad
debts to the government.

Washington, July 26.—Submission to congress today of the administration plan for funding the railroad debt and placing $500,000,000 to the credit of the railroads threatens to split party lines wide open again on the railroad question.

It is believed however, that a majority of the Republican senators and representatives will support the plan which the president is to explain in detail.

The president's original intention was to send a message to congress on the subject but it is understood now that he will embody the plan in a letter addressed to Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee and Rep. Winslow, Republican, Massachusetts, chairman of the house interstate commerce committee. They will in turn transmit the letter to the senate and house, according to present arrangements and sponsor the legislation necessary to carry out the plan
through the war finance corporation.

OIL COMPANIES IN TAMPICO FIELDS TO RESUME WORK

Disastrous Fire In District
South of Tampico is Extinguished

Mexico City, July 26.—The oil companies in the Tampico fields that suspended operations in protest against the increased export tax on oil have officially notified the ministry of the interior that they will resume operations August 1, it was stated by officials of the ministry of interior today.
The workmen who were discharged are now being recalled.

The ministry of finance announces that the financial condition of the government is excellent.

The fire in the Amatlan oil fields
south of Tampico where millions of dollars of damage was done has been extinguished. An Indian fire fighter distinguished himself by rushing through the blaze behind an asbestos shield shutting off the valve of a well that was pouring oil upon the flames. He will receive a reward of $100,000.

FOUR DISPUTES WILL BE DECIDED

Bridgeport, O., July 26.—Four disputes between miners and operators will be decided at a meeting of the joint committees representing the two organizations in Cleveland tomorrow, it was announced at mine headquarters here today.

The call for the international convention of the United Mine Workers of America to be held in Indianapolis Sept. 20 was received here today.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT AND WIFE BELIEVED LOST IN WILDS OF CANADIAN ROCKIES

Banff, Alberta, July 26.—No trace has been found early today of Dr. W.
E. Stone, head of Purdue University, and Mrs. Stone, who have been missing since July 17. Searching parties are scouring the country around Mount Eanon and increasing alarm is felt for the safety of Dr. and Mrs.
Stone.

Dr. Stone and his wife who are experienced mountaineers, left Mount Assiniboine camp on July 17, provisioned for a four day walking tour
in the Canadian Rockies. The only

Famine And Cholera Are Depopulating Soviet Russia; Relief Measures Taken

Will Evacuate All Children From Volga Region—Help From Abroad Eagerly Welcomed—Exodus of Farmers Begins From Stricken Region—Government
Attempting to Guard Against Panic Which Evacuation Would Mean

Riga, July 26.—Famine and cholera are depopulating soviet Russia and all government projects except those for the relief of the people have been ordered stopped.

The soviet at Moscow is planning to evacuate all the children from the Volga region, according to information received here today.

It is a difficult problem, however,
and warning already has been given by a writer in the official Izvestia that the transportation of the children may mean certain death because of the scarcity of food, pollution of water,

and the absence of clothing and shoes.
The supplies brought into Russia by the American society of friends (Quakers) have been exhausted. The quakers have been invited by the soviet, however, to extend their work.
All offers of help for Russian children from abroad will be accepted, Lenine declared at Moscow. The plight of the Russian children is terrible. The death rate of children is much higher than that of adults. Already children are starved, showing the evil effects of the 1920 famine.

Newspapers just received here from Moscow report the first donations to the central committee relief fund.
Rice, dried fruits, cocoa, bread and sugar were sent from Saratov.

The Bransky regiment contributed a month's pay. The red militia is giving bread from its meager rations.
An exodus of farmers has begun
from the Volga region and the soviet government is attempting to turn the starving peasants away from central Europe.

A communist call has been issued for all members of the party to unite in fighting the famine and disease.
All are asked to contribute something. The nations resources will be mobilized.

The soviet believes that it is important to control immigration as one means of fighting absolute starvation.

A produce tax is being put into effect. Public proclamations lay stress upon the declaration that failure to pay the produce tax will bring about collapse of the government. The tax must be paid before August 15.

In order to insure a crop next year
the government is attempting to prevent the farmers from leaving the rich grain belt of the Volga. It is feared that if an unrestricted wave of immigration sets in it will spread panic throughout the entire country. The Volga is the greatest grain producing part of the country and if it is deserted Russia will be without hope next year.

ROCKEFELLER TO GOLF AT 100

John D. Rockefeller & Dr. H. F. Biggar

The prediction that John D.
Rockefeller, who recently celebrated his eighty-second birthday, will live to be one hundred years old was made in Cleveland the other day by Dr. H.
F. Biggar, his physician and lifelong friend. The doctor, who is also eighty-two, looks forward to a golf match with the Oil King when both have rounded the century mark. Dr.
Biggar said: "Mr. Rockefeller is in better health now than many a man of fifty. Anyone who follows his sensible way

of living can live to be a cen-tarian. Mr. Rockefeller once had indigestion, but he does not suffer from it now. He can eat anything, but he observes
one of the prime laws of health and eats moderately.
Often I have heard him remark
as he rose from the dinner
table, 'I could have eaten more.' His good sense tells him that moderation in diet is a prerequisite of endurance." to Dr. Biggar is given the credit for prolonging the life of the world's richest man.

panied by Secretary and Mrs. Weeks and other guests, will leave Wash-

commemorating the landing of the Pilgrims 300 years ago.

PESSIMISTIC NOTE SOUNDED ON IRISH PEACE PLAN NOW

Sinn Fein Parliament To Begin Secret Debate
On Offer.

London, July 26.—The Sinn Fein
cabinet at Dublin now is ready for Dai Eireann (Sinn Fein parliament)
to begin secret debate upon the peace
offer of Premier Lloyd George, according to advices from Dublin today.
All of the developments of the past 24 hours have been of such a nature
as to increase rather than diminish optimism.

Premier Lloyd George announced
in the house of commons that the Irish armistice would continue pending resumption of the negotiations between Eamonn DeValera and the English government. This indicated that the premier is hopeful that a satisfactory reply will be received from DeValera and that a general peace
parley ultimately will be arranged.

The Irish republican army chiefs
and the commander of the crown forces in Ireland are reported to have reached an agreement upon alleged violations of the truce by the English.

THIEVES UPSET ORDER AT FIGHT

New York, July 26.—Some daring, resourceful thieves caused more excitement at Ebbets field last night than did the changing of the bantam weight title from Joe Lynch to Pete Herman.

While the crowd was surging
around the ticket windows, the wires
over one of them was cut plunging it in darkness. The window was tended through the window and when the excitement subsided it was found that $900 was missing.

Not knowing what had happened,
the crowd became restive, the gate
was crushed and it was some time before the meager handful of police could restore a semblance of order.

NEW GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION OF BAN JOHNSON'S CHARGES MAY BE LAUNCHED

Chicago, July 26.—Sifting of the charges made by Ban Johnson, president of the American League that Arnold Rothstein of New York paid
$10,000 for copies of the confessions
of Eddie Cicotte, Joe Jackson and Claude Williams in the 1919 world's series scandal was to begin today with the return to the city of State Attorney Robert E. Crowe. It is expected that a new grand jury investigation of Rothstein's alleged connection with the plot to fix the famous series
will be launched.

Trial of the indicted ball players
and gamblers was believed appreciably
nearer the close today as the result

WILL TAKE SEVERAL MONTHS TO REFIT BIG CUNARD LINER

Disastrous Fire On Maure-tania Caused By Cigarette.

London, July 26.—It will be several months before the Cunard liner Mauretania, which was swept by fire
at her dock at Southampton yesterday
can be re-conditioned and replaced
in the trans-Atlantic service, it was stated today by representatives of the Cunard line.

Three decks were swept by the flames including the library, lounge
and reading room.
Firemen were on duty at the Cunard pier at Southampton all night
pouring water upon the smouldering liner.

It is believed that the fire originated from a cigarette carelessly thrown away by a workman who was cleaning
the state rooms.
There was a slight flare up of flames on the Mauretania today but it was quickly extinguished. Cunard officials are now preparing for an investigation to determine the origin of the fire.

nam is captain of the team which in-

session of the Sinn Fein cabinet
was held today with Eamonn De-Valera present, to consider the British peace terms. DeValera said he would not have a statement for the press for several days.

London, July 26.—North and South Ireland have already reached an agreement upon the future
form of Irish government, according to the Evening News. The newspaper added that some of the Sinn Fein delegates are ready to accept Premier Lloyd George's term.

WILL CONSIDER NEXT MOVES IN UPPER SILESIA

Meeting Scheduled To Take Place August 4—Victory
for England.

FIGHTING BREAKS OUT

French Cancel Plans To Send Reinforcements
Into Country Now

London, July 26.—The inter-allied supreme council will meet in Paris
August 4 to take up the Upper Silesian issue, it was announced officially at 10 Downing street today. It is possible Premier Lloyd George will be absent.

The decision to summon the supreme council on August 4, represents a victory for Great Britain and a concession by France. Great Britain has been urging an immediate meeting of the inter-allied body and while the meeting will not be held for more than a week it is a defeat for Premier Briand who had openly declared at Paris that France could not consent to a meeting of the supreme council
until the end of August so that the experts could draw up the Silesian
frontiers in the meantime.

George Harvey, the American ambassador, will attend the meeting as representative of the United States.
While the meeting is primarily called for the discussion of Upper Silesia it is possible that the question of mandates may be taken up
later in the session despite the proposed international conference of President Harding which will discuss Pacific mandates.
British experts will arrive in Paris
tomorrow for a preliminary meeting
on upper Silesia.

Fighting Breaks Out.

Berlin, July 26.—Fighting has again broken out in Upper Silesia according to a Breslau dispatch to the Allgemeine Zeitung today.

Six Germans were wounded in a clash with Polish insurgents. A general strike has been proclaimed at Rybnik.

The Poles were said to be the aggressors.
The Polish insurgents have seized the Birawo-Zergowitz railway. A number of railway stations were set on fire.

The Breslau-Ratibor Express could not make its regular trip on account of damage to the line.

FRENCH CANCEL PLANS

London, July 26.—The French were reported today to have cancelled their plans for sending reinforcements into Upper Silesia as a result of the protest of the British and the refusal of the British to send more troops.

The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that an agreement between Great Britain and France over Upper Silesia is pending and that the supreme council will meet between August 1 and August 4
to consider the Silesian issue.

The British experts who with French experts, have been studying the boundary question in Upper Silesia, will participate in the supreme council meeting.

Italy To Take Part.

Rome, July 26.—Italy is ready to take part in a meeting of the supreme council at once for settlement of the Upper Silesian issue before it become more acute, officials of the government declared today. Italy it was pointed out, has been contending that it was necessary to act upon Upper Silesia at the earliest possible moment
to reach a solution and prevent further warfare.

Premier Bonomi has declared against any military measures that are contrary to the treaty of Versailles. He said that Italy would not support France in any military adventure she may undertake if it is opposed to the principles of the treaty.
"Italy above all else wants European tranquility and approves of England's efforts to restore it," said the premier.

WILL MEET IN BOULOGNE.

Paris, July 26.—The inter-allied supreme council will meet at Boulogne
on August 4, it was officially announced today.

(Official announcement was made in London that the supreme council would meet in Paris.)

The allied experts who have been in Upper Silesia studying boundaries
will meet in Paris on Thursday.

The question of sending French reinforcements to Upper Silesia is still in abeyance, officials declared.

The opinion is strong in government circles that the Upper Silesian issue will be settled satisfactorily.

NEEDS MORE WATER.

Leesburg, July 26.—Declaring that the water at Leesburg is of the finest quality and adequate in supply up to a certain point, the Citizen expresses a fear the demands of the growing village with street improvements to be made in city fashion will make it necessary to dig more wells as soon as possible.

DENY REPORT THAT ROCKEFELLER WILL BE MARRIED AGAIN

New York, July 26.—An astounding report that John D. Rockefeller, Sr., the world's richest man, is contemplating matrimony, which spread through high financial and social circles today, was denied this afternoon by the oil king's secretary at his Tarrytown estate.

When International News Service communicated the report to the secretary, she said: "That is perfect nonsense. Mr. Rockefeller is all right. If you want to find out more call up No. 23 Broadway."

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was reported "in the country" but his secretary said that he had not heard Rockefeller was to marry and the report was to flimsy to warrant calling the oil king's son in reference to it.

TO COMPEL WEALTH TO SHOULDER TAXES

Washington, July 26.—Wealth will be compelled to pay the government its proper proportion of the tax burden if congress will seek to down the excessive surtax rates to a reasonable level, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon said today.

Billions of dollars now are going into tax exemption securities to escape the confiscatory rates of the surtax scale, which run as high as seventy per cent.

Secretary Mellon said that as long as present rates stand, wealthy taxpayers will be frightened away from normal investment fields into tax exempt investments in securities.

In view of the fight in congress over three cent letter postage and the plan to impose a stamp tax on bank checks, there may be a change in the treasury's plans in that direction, and a refusal to recommend these two courses of action.

The three cent letter postage has gone far beyond the discussion stage as a means of raising new revenue, it was said at the treasury, that Secretary Mellon will weigh the proposal with extreme care in further conferences with Postmaster General Hays, before definitely committing himself to the administration.

ROAD WORK THREE TIMES PRE-WAR PRICE IS CHARGE

Columbus, July 26.—Some confusion might be avoided if State Director of Highways, Herrick and Senate Brand of Campaign County could get together and make joint analyses of road building costs.

Herrick, according to a statement issued at the governor's office, said: "The cost of building roads in Ohio under the Davis administration has returned practically to a prewar basis all surrounding conditions considered, it was shown at Friday's letting of roads."

Brand, comparing current figures with macadam, concrete and brick costs which he said obtained in Campaign County before the war, replied:

"From these figures you can readily see that the bids of July 23 this year, are three times pre-war prices."

Herrick said the letting "brought the average cost per mile of new roads to approximately $30,000."

Brand lists the average of low bids for seven types of material and says: "A composite mile of all the averages most $36,722."

Again, Herrick asserted the low bids averaged 12.6 per cent below department engineers' estimates.

Somehow Brand arrives at this: "A paltry 10 per cent reduction has been obtained below the department estimates."

"We must have a 50 per cent reduction in place of 10 per cent and then we'll be away above 1914 prices" Brand adds.

Farmers Face Poor Crops.

Asserting that everything farmers own, except their debts, has been cut in two, and that they are facing the poorest crop in years, Brand calls it "unthinkable and unpardonable" to spend millions on roads, "especially when we are receiving only one-third value on our investment."

"Private citizens over the state seem of one mind," he continues, "that road costs are unwarranted prohibitive and must be deflated. And remember, in counties that have native material, the worn out pikes can be made into good gravel roads for around $1000 a mile and maintained in smooth condition for a few cents of maintaining cement and brick roads if purchased at present prices."

The analysis of Friday's letting issued at the governor's office said: "It was discovered that all estimates of the department were shattered by a precipitous reduction by the competing contractors of road costs all along the line. It brings down the average cost per mile of new road to approximately $30,000 and the average cost per mile for new construction and reconstruction combined to about $28,000."

"Taking into consideration the proved necessity of a heavier standard of construction of main roads, to withstand present day traffic demands and weather conditions, and the need for wider roadways than in the past, the highway officials stated these reduced costs put road construction practically on the 1917 basis in the matter of average cost."

Marion, July 26.—A direct charge that State Highway Commissioner Herrick is responsible for the alleged exorbitant cost of road building was made in a signed public statement by Fred W. Warner, Marion County prosecuting attorney. Warner's charge followed a formal protest made to the commissioner recently over the cost of road construction in Marion County.

"Herrick is letting some highway contracts in excess of $100,000 a mile," Warner stated, "and, notwithstanding these prices, he has the consummate gall to say to men vitally interested that he isn't interested in the price of materials."

COMMUNITY TO FROLIC AT KIL-KARE PARK WEDNESDAY AT ANNUAL PICNIC

The Community Picnic sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, but arranged for the entire city, to be held at Kilcare Park Wednesday, will be the biggest outdoor affair of the summer.

The Community Picnic is being particularly urged as a family picnic affair, and family groups are urged to take full advantage of the outdoor party. All picnickers will bring their own lunch baskets to the picnic and they will be served in groups at the tables arranged in the shady nooks at Kilcare. The Chamber of Commerce will furnish hot coffee and ice cream for the picnickers.

An interesting program of events will take place during the afternoon and evening. Merchants have donated many prizes that will be offered for the numerous contests to be conducted, including races for men, women and boys, chicken chases, three-legged races, sack races, peanut races and premier of all speed events the canoe race to be held on the river in the evening. The canoe race is being held by special request and it is expected that practically every canoe owner on the river will take part in the event.

Both champions and challengers in the tilting contest have been practicing arduously for this event, which will be the last event of the afternoon program before the supper hour.

Tilting sprang into popularity with the public during the picnic of last year when Giv Pillsbury and Arthur Currie won the championship. This year the champs have been challenged by George Shoun and William Davidson, and the tilting event is causing so much excitement it threatens to crowd the other events out of interest.

In connection with the tilting set, Leigh Nisbet has issued the following set of rules to govern the contest and for enlightenment of the large gallery expected to be on hand for the event. The canoes and lances will be of equal and uniform length and weight, each team consisting of two players, a lanceman and a steersman. At a signal from the referee the opposing crews advance upon each other, and the lanceman by dexterous use of their padded lances attempt to upset the opposing canoe or throw the occupants into the water. After a partial or complete upset, the crews withdraw and wait during a three minute intermission before again attacking.

The crew first scoring twenty points against its opponent will be credited with the victory. Five points are counted for a complete upset of the opponent canoe, putting both men in the water; three points are counted for forcing the opposing lanceman or steersman into the water without upsetting the opponents' canoe.

One point is counted for forcing the opposing lanceman down into his boat, and any variation from the original tilting position shall score one point for the opposing crew. Tilting position is known as the upright or semi-upright position wherein the lanceman stands in the bottom of the canoe with both feet and does not touch the canoe with any part of the body above the knees.

It is a foul to strike an opponent below the belt, for striking the opposing steersman, for fending off the opposing canoe in any manner with pad, with any part of the lance excepting the padded end, and for any act which is unsportsmanlike or unfair and which in the opinion of the referee is serious enough to constitute a foul. All fouls count two points in favor of the crews against which the foul was committed.

A long blast from the referees' whistle shall indicate that a score has been made and contestants are to cease fighting. A short and long blast shall indicate that fighting is to be resumed. With the interest in the water sport increasing with an increasing knowledge by the public of the game, it is anticipated that the tilting event will be the premier feature of the afternoon program. After the picnic supper which shall follow the match, dancing will be enjoyed and prizes will be given for the best waiting couple.

THE UNITED STATES ADVANCES DETAILS FOR THE DISARMING PARLEY.

Expectation of a favorable report from the Advisory Council in Tokio relative to full acceptance by Japan of the proposal by the United States for a conference on disarmament and the Far East, enabled Secretary Hughes to place before the Cabinet a report of progress which was styled after the meeting as "very satisfactory."

Much of the time at a recent gathering of the President and his advisors, it was ascertained, was given over to the discussion of the problems which have arisen due to the President's call, the possible date of the conference and the personnel of the American delegation. President Harding himself will not be a member; he has no desire to play a role in the Washington conference similar to that played in Paris by Woodrow Wilson. Neither has the President in mind any declaration of principles such as the Fourteen Points. The President, it may be said, has a personal predilection for "open covenants," but the method of conducting the conference is to be left to the conference itself.

Dates both earlier and later than November 11, which continues to be the hope of the United States, have been suggested, but the conviction still exists in Washington that there can be no good reason for a postponement if the Powers invited are earnestly interested in reaching a solution of the problem as soon as possible.

The United States will not grant audience or receive any communication from Bolshevik Russia.

Assurances have been given, it was learned, to Belgium, the Netherlands and Portugal that when the conference reaches the point of discussing Far Eastern questions in which they are respectively interested an opportunity will be granted them to participate. Communications have been sent to those three Governments. They have been told that the United States has no intention of slighting their rights nor ignoring their claims. The impossibility of broadening the invitations is considered to be apparent to officials of this Government, based on the belief that if the door were opened to one nation, twenty others would have the right to demand a place at the conference table.

WE WILL "BEWARE OF ENTANGLING ALLIANCES."

London again is watching Silesia with "grave anxiety." This angry ulcer in the heart of Europe is becoming malignant and threatening. Korfanty, the Pole, who lit the fires of revolt months ago, hurries to Paris with the laconic warning, "Decision or insurrection."

Paris is worried. So is London. Downing Street is so absorbed with the Irish negotiations that it dares not turn its back on Dublin and Belfast. Hints are beginning to travel the trans-Atlantic cables that the United States will be asked to intervene.

London and Paris may as well save breath, cable tolls and ink. The United States is in no mood for the kind of intervention that is likely to be needed in Upper Silesia. The Administration that sits now in the White House and on Capitol Hill is not an intervening Administration.

There is hardly the slightest disposition in the United States to pull this particular European chestnut out of the fire. There is a general disposition on this side of the Atlantic to blame both France and England, but particularly France, for the conditions that exist in Upper Silesia.

It is the feeling among the plain citizens on this side of the water that Silesia is a European problem purely and that we can have neither lot nor part in it. France and England, as the nations chiefly responsible for the enforcement of the Versailles Treaty, are the nations to whom America looks for the settlement of this question.

Rightly or wrongly, the American attitude just now is that we shall keep out of European quarrels. We shy even at being made the arbitrator in the chronic disputes, typified by Upper Silesia.

If conditions are as dangerous to Eastern Europe as London and Paris claim, France and England should respond to the alarm with speed and earnestness. The fire that is smoldering is in their neighborhood, not ours.

HOW GERMANY LOOKS AT THE PROPOSED WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.

A late Berlin dispatch says: "Germany continues to show keen interest in the preparations for the Washington Conference, but all the liberal papers now print announcements of the progress being made without comment. Speculation as to the results and interpretation of the answers of the various nations is left to the radical right and left wing organs, which interpret the reported progress to suit their own purpose."

"There are two classes here that want to see the conference a success: One is that great class of German Socialists and Democrats of various shades who have had enough of war and welcome any step to reduce the possibility of future wars; and the second is the German monarchists, who believe that the more other nations decrease their armament programs the less weak Germany will be in comparison."

"The Communists, on the other hand, do nothing but criticize and they point to the growing power of the United States as a menace to the workingmen of Europe. This is consistent, however, with their general policy of always supporting Soviet activities and opposing anything sponsored by other Governments."

DOCTOR SAYS THE CRISIS IS PAST

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

Mr. George McDonald, foreman of the stone cutters, who was overcome by the heat a few days ago, and was quite sick, is on duty again, though looking a little pale as the result of his illness.

The stone masons for the Orient Hill school building will finish the foundations for the new structure within the next few days and the brick walls will soon make their appearance.

Mrs. F. W. Dodds, and Mrs. Carrie Geyer and children have gone to Lake Bluff, Illinois, where they expect to spend the heated term, joining other relatives who are spending the summer vacation at the resort.

Arrangements are being made for a series of band concerts at Lucas Grove. Improvements are being made in the way of a new band stand, additional swings, and the boats being newly painted. The concerts will be given by the S. of V. Band on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

The Average Pocketbook

AN EDITORIAL ON BUYING

The profiteer has been put out of business and a sizable amount has been added to the purchasing power of the dollar. As a member of the vast army of consumers you are naturally gratified at the result.

With prices reduced to a reasonable level, you are ready to do business once more.

But you will insist upon getting your money's worth. The days of easy getting and careless spending are past. The dollar will buy more than it would a year ago, but there are not so many dollars in the average pocketbook. Shopping around has become a virtue as well as a fine art.

The successful merchant knows his market. He knows to a cent what standard goods in his line are worth from day to day. Moreover, he knows standard goods when he sees them. He can recognize seconds at a glance. He knows what he can sell and approximately what price he can get.

The shopper who seeks to get the most for his money must possess the same sort of information. The housewife must know current values and where to secure the best quality, style and price. She must be able to distinguish between a real bargain (though the price may seem high) and a spurious bargain which will prove costly because the goods are not up to the mark. In other words, the shopper must know the market in order to buy advantageously.

Do you realize that full information about the market is laid before you seven days in the week in prodigious profusion of detail? All you have to do is to consult, compare and digest the advertisements.

These market reports are automatic and self-regulating in the accuracy and completeness of the information they convey. Style, quality, price and service—the four main essentials in all buying—are featured so the advertisement reader is in a position to make satisfactory selection. If one merchant fails to give full information about what he has to sell, the buyer will patronize the merchant who is more informative.

Advertisements are not statements of opinion, but of the hard facts of business competition.

Competition today is among the sellers who seek your business. A year ago it was among the buyers seeking goods at any price. The consumers themselves have brought about the change. Normal buying now will make the victory of greatest benefit to them. We must encourage manufacturers to keep busy, and merchants to turn their stocks often, otherwise prices will necessarily advance, because goods will become scarce. When you buy advertised goods you encourage quick stock turns. This insures not only the best quality but the lowest price for you. If opposition of consumers to this great economic law is carried beyond reason it reacts against the consumers themselves.

Because this is true, consumers should study the advertising columns of the newspapers as never before.

You can't help but like them!

FLIES.

I sat today, with my Aunt Lillian, and counted passing flies; we counted up to fourteen million, then quit the job, with sighs. I hoped to find decreasing numbers, I'd swatted flies so much; I'd often missed my meals and slumbers, to put the flies in dutch. For years I'd read the health board papers, denouncing flies as crimes; and you beheld my swatting capers, and praised my zeal betimes. I thought the health board sports were posted, I held their counsel grand; and up and down the house I coasted, my swatstick in my hand. And as I toiled I called on others to help the grand crusade; I called on babes and doting mothers to kill flies with a spade. I called on ancient aunts and uncles, and said to them, "Oh, chee! Forget your spavins and carbuncles, and kill some flies with me!" I called upon my idle neighbors, who sat beneath their vines, to join me in my useful labors, or else take in their signs. I bored all people with my clamor, I bored them with my cries, to take a shotgun or a hammer and kill a lot of flies. I sat today, with my Aunt Lillian, to count the buzzing bands; we counted up to fourteen million, and then threw up our hands. My swatter on the wall is pasted, above the kitchen door; I feel that all my toil was wasted, and I shall swat no more.

ANSWERED LETTERS

Vanity—As the new hair is golden like the ends of the old hair, this dark shade of the balance of it must come from an oily condition of the scalp. Brushing the hair daily will distribute this secretion and give an even shade over all, but a better way would be to tone the scalp either by massaging it or a tonic. An oily scalp is not a healthy one.

Beauty—If you could get sufficient exercise it would likely correct all your troubles. Walking is only one kind of exercise, but tennis and basket ball are what you need. The impoverished condition of the skin, after all the care you give the hands, the oily nose and the nervousness too, indicate poor circulation and a sluggish digestive system. You cannot do sedentary work all day and keep in perfect health without a proper amount of exercise.

M. A. B.—You are 20 pounds underweight. If you need instruction on diet to correct this, send an addressed, stamped envelope. The puffiness around the eyes may come from the same cause. If your skin is dry, you cannot overdo the use of cream. The ice rub cannot be overdone either and will keep your skin firm.

Peggy—Any soap of good quality can be used for shampooing the head. Castile soap is always a good choice. Arching the eyebrows is not to be recommended. Send a stamped, addressed envelope for tonic for the lashes and brows.

Jackie—Develop your arms by the proper exercises. You can increase your weight by taking a tablespoonful of olive oil three times each day, with the same amount of grape juice. Drink plenty of milk also.

Dora—Send an addressed stamped envelope for the formula to prevent excessive perspiration under the arms.

Young Girl—The space in the column will not admit of giving all the directions you need, but you will gain all this information by having your nails done a few times by a professional manicure. After these manicures you will know how to keep the nails looking neat for a time, but it will pay you to occasionally have them done professionally.

E. H. T.—All of your treatment for the skin is good except the steaming. Instead of that, remove the cream with a hot damp cloth and proceed as you are doing now. As you have used the shampoo for a year with good results, it should be a test of its merit.

Worried—Your hair will recover its natural color if you stop using the bleach. Buttermilk or lemon juice will lighten the shade of your freckles. You can lessen the tendency to freckle by shading the face while in the sun.

W. G. H.—Bathe the feet each night in warm water in which a handful of Epsom salts has been dissolved, after which, remove the loosened skin on the callous spots by using a sanitary file.

HERMAN SETS NEW RECORD IN RING

New York, July 26.—Pete Herman, sturdy little New Orleans bantamweight has today established something of a record as a conqueror of champions.

In winning back the world's bantamweight title from Joe Lynch in 15 rounds the Crescent city boxer polished off his third title holding opponent inside seven months.

After losing the bantam crown to Lynch in Madison Square Garden last winter Herman hopped onto a trans-Atlantic liner and sailed for London where on January 13 he knocked out Jimmy Wilde, world's flyweight champion in the 17th round of a scheduled 20 round bout.

Two weeks ago, in another London ring he floored Jem Higgins, British bantam champion in 11 rounds and last night with 30,000 sweltering fight fans looking on, he won a judges' decision over Joe Lynch after 15 rounds of hard milling and recaptured the world's championship.

No other boxer within memory has beaten so many classic opponents over such a short space of time and Herman's feat is certainly an epoch making one for the bantamweight division.

Interest in the bantam weights is stronger today than it has been for many years and Herman, with plenty of good, willing banties on his trail will have no trouble cashing in on his title if he wants to keep busy.

WOULD MAKE STREET SHOWS PAY FEE

(Mechanicsburg Telegram)
A petition circulated Monday among the business men and residents, to require the payment of fee by out-of-town enterprises which might come here temporarily, was being generally signed.

It is aimed particularly at open air carnivals, street shows, bucksters, etc., who pay no local taxes, contribute in no manner toward rebuilding of the community and yet oftentimes carry away thousands of dollars, thus rendering the community just so much poorer. Such concessions have already been entirely excluded from many of the most progressive towns and cities of the state where their general detrimental character has been recognized.

The proposal is for a two mill levy covering a period of two years.

Neither case or the charges has been sustained.

LIGHTNING KILLS TEAM; MEN ESCAPE

A team of mules, valued at $600, belonging to John W. Van Eaton, of the Upper Bellbrook pike, was instantly killed by lightning, Monday afternoon, in one of the most peculiar accidents ever reported in this section.

Mr. Van Eaton and his father-in-law, William H. Harper, of West Third Street, this city, had been loading gravel into the wagon to which the mules were hitched, from a pit near the Van Eaton home. Mr. Van Eaton was driving the team, standing on the pile of gravel in the wagon. When the team was crossing an open field the bolt of lightning struck the mules, killing them instantly. Mr. Van Eaton was knocked from the wagon, and both men were shocked as a result of the bolt. It is thought that the wood of the wagon they were riding upon, probably saved their lives. Both mules were insured.

Interest but that it has been mislaid and cannot be found. The plaintiff asks for judgment with six per cent interest.

DINNER STORIES

On going his rounds about mid-night a policeman noticed an individual moving from house to house and trying to open the doors.

He seized him by the collar and said: "What are you doing here?" "Oh, nothing particular. You see, I've found a latchkey and I'm merely trying it on the doors in order to restore it to the owner."

"I beg your pardon, but what is your name?" the hotel clerk asked. "Name," echoed the indignant guest, who had just signed the register. "Don't you see my signature on the register?" "I do," answered the clerk. "That is what aroused my curiosity."

A northern tourist got off the train in Arkansas to get a better view of a lean animal that was rubbing itself against a scrub oak. "What do you call that animal?" he asked a native. "Razor-back hawg, suh."

"What's he rubbing himself against the tree for?" "He's stroppin' hisself, suh, jes' stroppin' hisself."

As Mrs. Atkinson was coming down her front steps one morning she tripped and tumbled headfirst. She landed at the feet of a kind-hearted gentleman, who, leaning over to assist her, asked solicitously:

"Did you fall, my dear madam?" Mrs. Atkinson was a casualty; but still socially poised. "Oh, no, indeed," she retorted acidly. "I always come out of the house this way."

The super-nut wandered into a shop. "I say," he said to the shopman,

"could you take that yellow tie with the pink spots out of the window for me?"

"Certainly, sir," replied the shopman. "We're pleased to take anything out of the window at any time."

"Thanks, awfully. It's jawly good of you," as he made for the door. "The thing bothers me every time I pass. Goo' mawnin'!"

The company had been marching for two solid miles without a rest and recruit Sullivan, holding the exalted rank of No. 3 in the rear rank, First squad, had about come to the limit of his endurance. Finally, just as he was about to give up the ghost and drop, the captain gave the command, "Com-ma-n-d, h-t."

"By the lord, captain," groaned Sullivan, as he eased off his pack, "you took the very words out of my mouth."

"It means 'In God we trust,'" replied the office boy confidently in answer to a question over the telephone.

"What does?" inquired the city editor, who caught the remark. "E pluribus Unum," answered the boy. "A man said he had a bet up."

"What did he say when you told him that?" "He said he guessed he'd lost the bet."

FAYETTE COUNTY STRETCH OF PIKE COVERED BY TAR

Washington, C. H., July 26—It will be well for motorists to avoid the Columbus pike during the next few days, it was announced at the County Surveyor's office Friday.

This road is being given a surface treatment of tar over its entire stretch of thirteen miles in Fayette county.

The road may be traveled, it was said, but the tar has become settled and it may cause some trouble by sticking to tires and places on cars where it splashes.

As soon as the Columbus pike is finished portions of the Wilmington pike and the Jeffersonville pike will be similarly treated.

SCARBOROUGH HAS ARRIVED IN ENGLAND

After the weeks' convention he will go to Cherbourg, France, to meet a party from this country that will tour the continent, returning to London, about September 1, to attend Methodist Ecumenical Conference. He will return to this country about October 1.

Xenia Lodge No. 668, B. P. O. E. Elks has been appealed to in the search for George L. Bosman, prominent attorney of Portsmouth, Va., and a member of the Elks of that city, who has been missing since July 4.

Bosman is described as being five feet 8 3/4 inches tall, weighs 135 pounds, is 28 years of age, has brown hair, deep set hazel eyes, student type with slightly stooping shoulders. His particular feature when talking is to run his hand through his hair. His hair is brushed back pompadour and he is an incessant talker, according to a bulletin received here.

A lunacy warrant has been issued for Bosman's apprehension and brother Elks and police all over the country have been asked to aid in the search for him. He carries membership card number 648.

PLANT SHUT DOWN ONLY TEMPORARY

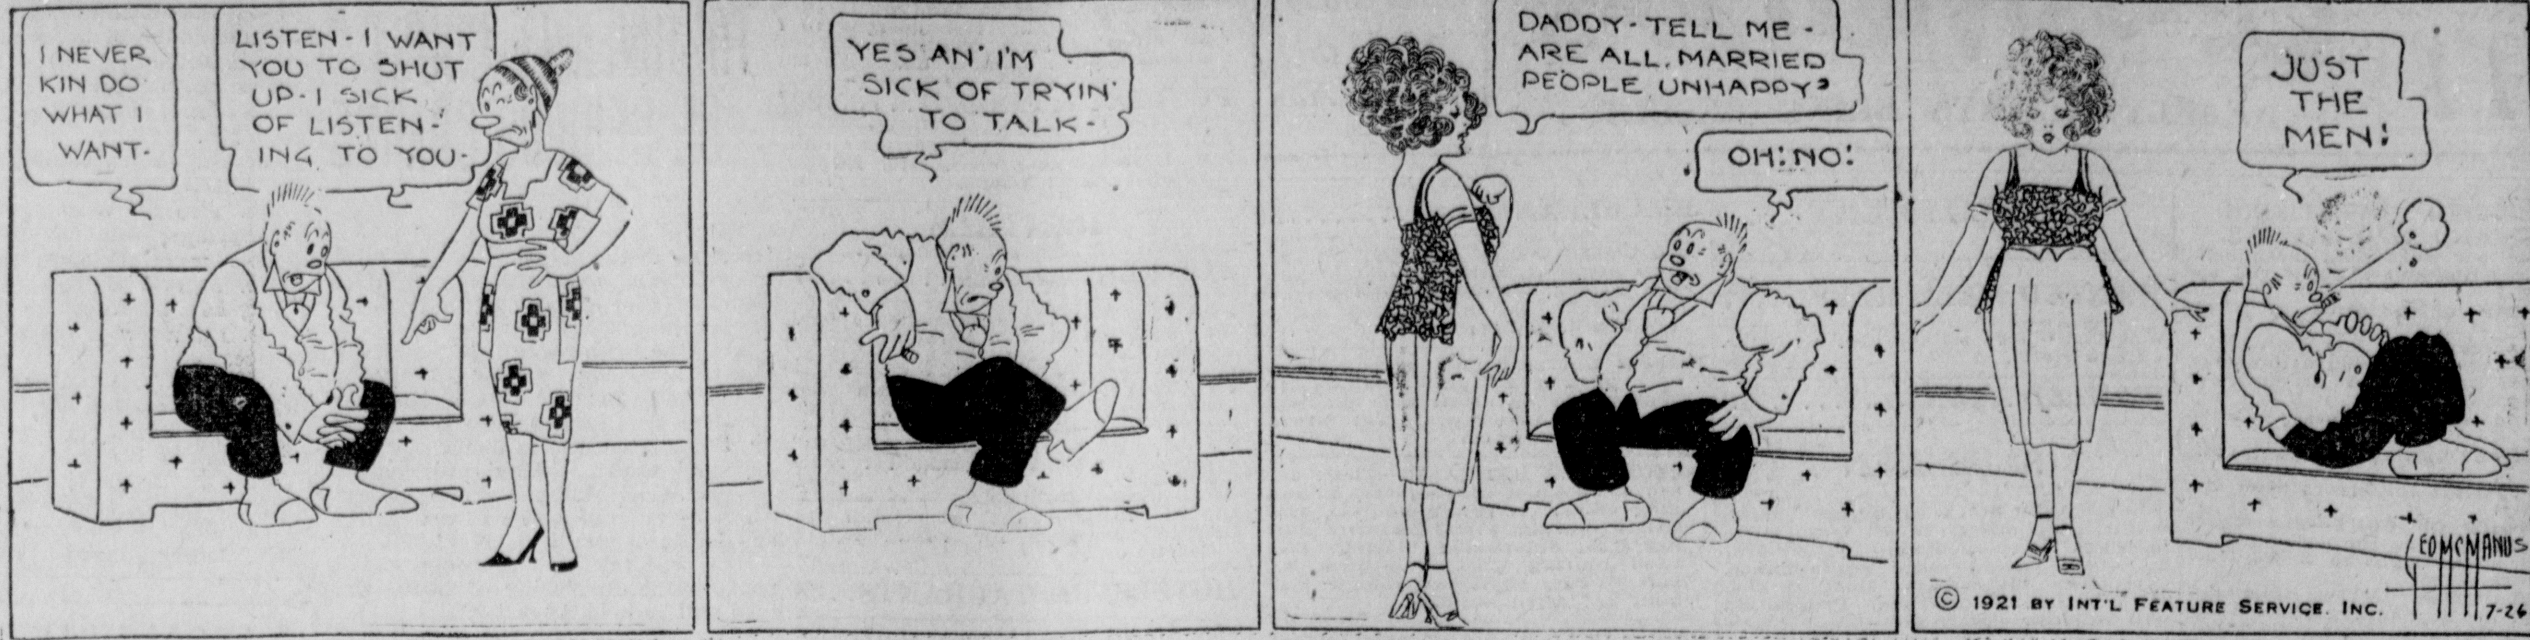

That the shut-down of the mills and machine shop of the R. A. Kelly Company, is only a temporary measure, was the statement of a company official, Monday.

The plant was closed down last Wednesday. The move, it is said, is only temporary, and while the length of the shut-down is not yet known, it is hoped to open the plant for business soon.

It is impossible to estimate how many men were thrown out of work because of the move, as the plant has been operating short-handed for some time.

The Xenia mills of the Hoover & Allison Company are still operating. The Ohio mill being the only mill closed. The Covington and Cincinnati plants of the company are also in operation although the mill at Kansas City has been closed down.

Asthmatic Sufferers May Know Health Again

By G. C. DONOHOO, D. C., Ph. C.
By G. C. DONOHOO, D. C.

Among the so-called incurable chronic diseases is asthma. Sufferers from Asthma have come to look upon their condition as something to be endured, rather than conquered. The sufferer from asthma seldom dies in an attack but the suffering is agonizing.

The structural condition of the spine in the region of the collar bone is invariably the same in every sufferer from asthma. Pressure upon spinal nerves at this point affecting the bronchial passages, has the effect of weakening the bronchial functions and bringing on the asthmatic condition. Chiropractic spinal adjusting restores the spinal joints to alignment, removes the pressure on spinal nerves of supply to the bronchial region, and with the cause removed, the asthmatic sufferer is once more in normal health.

"ASTHMATIC CONDITION IS ENTIRELY RELIEVED"

"In spite of my chiropractic skepticism I am entirely relieved. Even the asthmatic wheeze has left me. I am now able to get a full night's rest. Specialists did me no good. I shall always be a booster for chiropractic."—R. N. Bullock, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statestent No. 1243P.

Cooking the New Vegetables in a Casserole.

"Please print recipes for cooking the new vegetables in a casserole say several letters from my Readers. The following will be found delicious:

Stuffed New Cabbage en Casserole—Wash a head of cabbage, taking off any bruised outer leaves, then turn it up-side down and begin hollowing it out from the stem end. When it is scooped out as much as possible without falling to pieces, stuff with the following forcemeat: Have your butter send you one pound of beef put through his meat-grinder, and to this uncooked chopped beef add one medium-sized onion finely chopped, 4 slices of cooked bacon also finely chopped, 2 cups of breadcrumbs which have been merely moistened with a little hot water, one raw egg, 1 teaspoon salt, and a dash of pepper; mix these ingredients well together and add a little chopped green pepper if desired. Now place the stuffed cabbage in the casserole and pour around it one quart of ripe stewed tomatoes (or canned tomatoes) and place on cover; let bake in a moderate oven until the cabbage is tender and the meat done—about two hours. This is a fine supper dish. Serve with or without tomato sauce.

Halved Tomatoes and Rice en Casserole: Wash, soak and cook one cup of rice until tender, then put enough of it in the bottom of a medium sized casserole to make a thin layer; place upon it a rather thick layer of ripe, halved tomatoes and sprinkle well with salt, pepper and chopped or grated cheese; add a second layer of the cooked rice, and another layer of the tomato, seasonings and cheese—and continue alternating these layers until the dish is full. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs, on top and let bake, covered for 20 minutes, then uncover until the crumbs are brown. Serve very hot. This is another fine supper dish.

Stuffed Onions en Casserole—Remove skins from rather large onions and parboil the onions for ten minutes in boiling, salted water to cover.

Take them out, drain them well, then scoop out part of their centers; fill these cavities with uncooked diced tomato which has been mixed with an equal quantity of seasoned bread crumbs; sprinkle grated or chopped cheese on top and over that more bread crumbs, which have been moistened with a little melted butter. Place these stuffed onions in a roasty casserole, pour a little hot water around them together with a little melted butter, and let bake in a moderate oven, covered, until the onions are soft (about three hours) then remove cover and let brown well.

Young Cauliflower en Casserole:—Remove the "flowerets" from the stalk and cut the tenderest pieces of stalk into small pieces put these pieces with the flowerets, into a casserole, with a little hot water, cover and let simmer in the oven until the vegetable is tender (three hours in a moderate oven). Then remove cover and pour over the cauliflower, a sauce made by thickening 1 cup of milk with one tablespoon of flour (let cook till thick) and sprinkle grated cheese on top of this sauce. Slip the dish back into the oven for a few minutes until the cheese is melted and serve at once. Young onions, small new potatoes, and celery are also delicious when cooked in this way.

Tomorrow—Answered Letters.

A HOME AT LAST

Chapter 102

In the morning Keith left by an early train, but not so early that I was not there to bid him goodbye. Before the few people who were going on the train he took me in his arms and held me close just for a moment. The caress made it hard for me to let him go; it seemed almost as if he were taking my very soul with him. Never, even in my most bitter moments, had I ceased to love him and to long for his love. And I had starved for him so long! I did not go directly home. After watching until the last vestige of smoke from the train had disappeared, I took a long walk. I was so happy I wanted to be alone with my happiness. I think great joy affects us almost the same as does some great sorrow. We long to be alone to sense it.

"Well, dear?"

Mrs. Aldrich took my face be-

TAX REDUCTION WON BY CLARK COUNTY IN SUIT

Springfield, July 26—Clark county has won in legal action the right to reduce its tax rate on realty just ten per cent.

The county based its contention for the reduction on the grounds that other Ohio counties did not reappraise real estate last year while Clark county did and found a slump in valuation.

The state tax commission fought the action of the Clark county commissioners, but the supreme court refused to grant the writ of mandamus asked by the tax commission.

The case was heard by the last session of the Court of Appeals, sitting in Urbana.

tween her hands and kissed me. She said nothing about the length of time I had been gone, asked no questions, just gave me love.

"The train left on time. I took a long walk," I said as I returned her caress.

"I understand."

"That is one of the many dear things about you," I returned. "You always understand."

"I understand that I shall be very lonely when you go." She smiled at me.

"But I shall visit you often, and you will come to us. I should not be nearly so happy, in having a home were I not sure you would be with me often."

"Perhaps, dear child. That you want me, an old woman to share your happiness, gives me great pleasure. I like your husband. Now that he sees the error he made and is willing to rectify it, I believe you will be happy. But I also foresee many hard times for you. His sister, unless I am mistaken, will resent everything he does, and will be correspondingly unpleasant to you. But be patient and you may win her over. It would give him great happiness, perhaps the greatest you could possibly give him, if you two could become good friends."

The next few days I spent in getting ready to leave. I visited all the spots grown dear to me in my long walks. I wrote to Sallie a long letter telling her everything and asking her to plan to visit me when I was settled in my new home. I added:

"You will be surprised when I tell you that I have learned to cook and do most of the other things a good housewife does. I do not think Keith will miss any comforts in that direction. I shall have a servant, perhaps two, but if they don't do things right, I can show them. Dear Mrs. Aldrich insists that it is necessary for the mistress to know if she is to have perfect service. Margaret is a wonderful housekeeper and hostess, as you know."

"I am very anxious to have mother visit me. I spoke of it to Keith and he, too, seemed pleased at the idea. He loved his parents very dearly and had kept in touch with them always, which is unusual for most men."

"Jack Underwood is still a bachelor. We will ask him often when you come. Before I left I never saw him that he did not ask for you."

I was happier when I had dispatched my long letter home. I had often felt guilty that I had not written.

When the day came to bid Mrs. Aldrich goodbye, I realized how very dear she had become to me. Even Keith's presence, his laughing pretense of jealousy could not prevent tears as I left the little cottage where I had found peace and safety.

But when we were on the train speeding toward the new home Keith had made for me, I forgot everything save my delight in listening to what he had done for me, and my love for him.

We went directly to the apartment.

"Only bought the necessary things Vera. You will enjoy doing the rest," he said as he took me in his arms, and in real story book fashion said: "Welcome home, Vera."

"Welcome home, Vera." I exclaimed. "Oh, it will be such fun!" I exclaimed. But he really had made everything very cosy and comfortable. Annie was there. She would be the only maid I should require aside from a cook. I was delighted to have her. She welcomed us with a broad smile. In the early evening Gloria and Irene came to call. They chatted away like magpies and were delighted to have me back.

"I think it is bully for you to have a home of your own. We will have another place to go," Irene remarked, while Gloria added:

"I think it is lovely, you are back I love to be with you."

"Your sister has not forgiven me?" I asked Keith.

"No, Vera. Margaret refuses to either see you or talk about you. I am very sorry," his voice said. "Poor Margaret, she is dreadfully unhappy because I have left her. And Vera, she will hold me to the very letter of my promises. Do you realize you will be alone alone?"

"Yes, and I shall not complain," I replied happily. I wondered if I should have answered as I did had I known just what was before me?

Here's How to Sell By Telephone

Select 100 customers or prospects and give the names to a good salesman, preferably a road man who knows them personally.

Have him call them by long distance telephone on a "Station-to-Station" basis. He can do it in two days.

Let him talk just as he would on a personal visit. He can explain your goods, quote prices, answer questions, secure orders and arrange for prompt delivery.

The following week do the same with 100 others. Keep it up for a month—the cost will be low. Telephone sales campaigns have produced some remarkable results.

"Station-to-Station" service means savings of at least 20 per cent on toll charges.

Ask our commercial manager for detailed information on selling by telephone and our "Station-to-Station" service.
